TITLES OF PAPERS PRESENTED

The Address of the President—Contributions to the Pleistocene Geology of Iowa. George F. Kay.....	35
--	----

Presented in General Session

The status of the biological sciences in the high schools of Iowa. C. W. Lantz.....	243
The absorptive properties of charcoal. J. N. Pearce.....
The technique of handling pressures of 20,000 atmospheres in cylinders with glass windows. Thomas S. Poulter.....
Resume of snake notes. J. E. Guthrie.....	349

Bacteriology

The effect of lime on nitrification in the Grundy silt loam. R. H. Walker and L. G. Thompson, Jr.....	45
The spontaneous culture method for studying the non-symbiotic nitro- gen-fixing bacteria of the soil. R. H. Walker and John L. Sullivan	53
The inoculation of different varieties of soybeans by various strains of Rhizobium japonicum . G. Gordon Pohlman and R. H. Walker....	63
The rate of decomposition of some artificial manures. F. B. Smith.....	69
Studies on methods of measuring the nitrate assimilating power of soils. Ray A. Pendleton and F. B. Smith.....	75
Bacterial activities in soils variously treated. P. E. Brown and D. I. Aquino	87
Variations in soil reaction affect nitrification. P. E. Brown and G. V. C. Houghland.....	93
The effects of some nitrogen fertilizers on nitrification. Ray A. Pendleton, P. E. Brown, and F. B. Smith.....	99
Do significant physiological strains of bacillus Amylovorus (Burr.) Trev. exist? Frank L. Howard.....	105
The effect of Steffen waste on the fermentation of pentosans from the corn-stalk. E. I. Fulmer, C. H. Werkman, R. M. Hixon, and A. L. Williams.....	111
Physiological behavior of the propionic acid group of bacteria. Sara E. Kendall and C. H. Werkman.....	111
The production of propionic acid from pentoses by Propionibacterium pentosaceum . C. H. Werkman, R. M. Hixon, E. I. Fulmer, and C. H. Rayburn	111
The numbers of associated organisms in butter cultures. M. P. Baker
Observations on the bacteriology of pasteurized milk. R. V. Hussong
The effect of various treatments on microorganisms on the soil under a five year rotation. P. E. Brown and B. A. Tomlin.....	79
The present status of laboratory work in water laboratories. Jack J. Hinman, Jr.
Some agar digesting bacteria from trickling filters. H. E. Goresline and Max Levine.....
Systematic relationships of organisms of the genus Aero-bacillus . Margaret E. McFall.....
Iowa's public health frozen assets. Henry Albert.....

Botany

A study of Peronospora trifoliorum DeBary on species of leguminosae. I. E. Melhus and M. K. Patel.....	113
Reproduction in Cyathus stercoreus (Schw.) DeT. Don B. Creager.....	121
Lightning injury to alfalfa. Joseph C. Gilman.....	125
Notes on Iowa fungi. 1928. G. W. Martin.....	127
Notes on Iowa mosses I. Lucy M. Cavanagh.....	133
Additional notes on Iowa mosses, 1928-29. Betty Blagg.....	137
Gametophytes of Botrychium virginianum in Iowa. H. S. Conard.....	141
The distribution of the genus Tradescantia in Iowa. D. G. Deihl.....	143
Some Iowa Heliantheae . Series I. M. Rae Johns.....	147
Flowering plants of Henry county, Iowa, III. J. M. Lindley.....	185
Fruit size and shape genes on the first chromosome of the tomato. E. W. Lindstrom.....	189
Stimulation of root growth on cuttings from hardwood forest trees. G. C. Hutchings and J. A. Larsen.....	191
Germination of trees and shrubs. L. H. Pammel and C. M. King.....	201
Weed succession on an abandoned roadway. Robert P. Adams.....	213
Heights of weeds. L. H. Pammel and C. M. King.....	221
Structure and composition of pollen grains of vernal plants. Ada Hayden and J. N. Martin.....	233
Some problems in the classification of the fungi. Guy West Wilson.....	241
The ecesis of the gentian in relation to environmental transition. Ada Hayden.....	241
The biological aspects of the flood-control and drainage problems. B. Shimek.....	241
Studies of the diurnal fluctuations of sap hydron concentration in young wheat plants. Walter F. Loehwing.....	242
Correlation of number of vascular bundles and cross-sectional area of corn stem. A. L. Hershey.....	242
The botany of the Rio Grande valley and adjacent Mexico. L. H. Pammel.....	242
How the college text books in Botany treat the prairie problem. B. Shimek.....	243
The plant life of a prairie province in Polk county, Iowa. Winifred Gilbert.....	243
Notes on Iowa grasses. Robert P. Adams.....
Imbibitions and hydroscopicity in sweet corn as compared to field corn. A. L. Bakke and A. T. Erwin.....
Disturbances in the development of crown and root of biennial white sweet clover induced by mowing. J. H. Martin.....
What a weed survey of Iowa shows. L. H. Pammel.....
Weeds in the vicinity of elevators. L. H. Pammel and C. M. King.....

Chemistry — General and Physical

The determination of manganese in potable waters. Edward Bartow and Harris Thompson.....	245
The influence of solvent on the decomposition of trichloroacetic acid. J. N. Pearce and A. C. Nelson.....	251
The precise determination of sulfates. Stephen Popoff and E. W. Neu- man.....	261
The temperature effect on the solubilities of nickel, tin, copper, steel (chromium), and zinc in raw cow's milk. G. N. Quam.....	261
The heats of adsorption of organic vapors on charcoal at 25° and 50°. G. H. Reed and J. N. Pearce.....	262
A theory of solubility. P. A. Bond.....	262
A summary of oxidation-reduction potentials. (a) Ferric-ferrous electrode (b) Mercuric-mercurous electrode (c) Manganese dioxide electrodes. Stephen Popoff, A. H. Kunz, J. A. Riddick, and W. W. Becker.....	263

PAPERS PRESENTED

17

The influence of pH values on the oxidation of ferrous sulphate. Jacob Cornog and Albert Hershberger.....	264
The determination of oxidation-reduction potentials from equilibrium data. Stephen Popoff, V. B. Fleharty, and E. L. Hanson.....	265
Chlorine preparation — fact and theory. R. Monroe McKenzie.....
A cathophoretic method of evaluating adsorptive agents. H. L. Olin, John D. Lykins, and Marvin Reed.....
The need of a name for the unit used in weighing atoms and molecules. F. E. Brown.....
The effect of pressure up to 20,000 atmospheres upon the optical rotation of some organic compounds. Thomas C. Poulter and J. Glenn Strieby

Chemistry — Organic and Biological

Further studies on the utilization of agricultural wastes. Henry Gilman, R. E. Brown, J. B. Dickey, A. P. Hewlett, and G. F. Wright....	265
A study of the Hoesch-Houben synthesis in the preparation of aromatic ketimines and hydroxy-phenyl iminoesters. Eva Bresson and J. B. Culbertson	266
The synthesis of 4-hydroxy- and 2-hydroxy-diphenyl ketimines. Paul Vittum, Richard Anderson, and J. B. Culbertson.....	266
The effect of manganese on the growth of rats. V. E. Nelson, J. M. Evvard, and W. E. Sewell.....	267
The copper content of livers and liver extracts. G. N. Quam.....	267
Derivatives of 3-amino-4-methoxytoluene. L. Chas. Raiford and Oliver Grosz	268
The effect of substituents in the formation of thiocarbanilides. L. Chas. Raiford and G. Mervin McNulty.....	269
The lability and relative reactivities of organic radicals. Henry Gilman, Edith L. St. John, and L. L. Heck.....	269
A study in the ring structure of methylated sugars. Carrell A. Whitnah	270
Some physico-chemical studies of organometallic compounds. Henry Gilman, L. L. Heck, and J. A. Leermakers.....	270
The decomposition of the optically active diazo ester from aminolauronic acid. F. E. Ray and W. R. Bunting.....	271
Biochemical studies of the humors and the lens of the eye with special reference to cataract formation. P. W. Salit.....

Geology

Additional significant Pleistocene sections in Iowa. George F. Kay.....	275
The Story-Marshall tornado of August 20, 1928. John E. Smith.....	276
Nashua marl exposures along the St. Johns river. S. W. Stookey.....	277
What shall we do with Precambrian? Charles Keyes.....	277
The eastern margin of the Hertha in Madison county. Arthur Goshorn	278
Recessional stages between the Altamont and the Gary (?) moraines in Iowa. John E. Smith.....	278
Oil structures in Iowa. Charles Keyes.....	279
Foraminifera in the Iowa Devonian. A. O. Thomas.....	279
A review of the time factor represented by the stratigraphic breaks in the Iowa geological column. A. O. Thomas.....	280
Glacial outlook from Iowa. Charles Keyes.....	280
History of the terms Lime Creek and Hackberry. C. Belanski.....

Mathematics

On Stieltjes integrals and their geometric interpretation. E. W. Chittenden
Fitting an n -dimensional surface to an equation of the form: $x_1 = F(x_2, x_3, x_4, \dots, x_n)$. A. E. Brandt.....
A note on Leibnitz's theorem for the differentiation of the product of two functions. John F. Reilly.....

A torsion problem in curvilinear coordinates. E. W. Anderson.....
Approximate solution of the problem of Mr. Anderson. D. L. Holl....
Note on the existence theorem for a certain differential equation. N. B. Conkwright.....
An expression for the difference of the remainders after n terms in the Fourier series for two related functions. N. B. Conkwright.....
Each diagonal of a parallelopiped passes through the centroids of two diagonal triangles. J. S. Turner.....
A property of coaxial circles. J. S. Turner.....
Mathematics and common sense. C. W. Wester.....
Some properties of a class of curves. Roscoe Woods.....
Some mistakes of the amateur mathematicians. E. R. Smith.....
A comparison of the distribution curves of variance and of standard deviation. H. L. Rietz.....
An evaluation of periodicals from a mathematician's point of view. E. S. Allen.....
The diurnal path of the end of shadow. C. C. Wylie.....
The interest rate on a loan repaid by installments. C. C. Wylie.....

Physics

A spectrophotometric and spectroscopic study of Phi Persei. Herbert F. Schiefer.....	281
The effect of pressures up to 17,000 atmospheres upon some colloidal suspensions. Robert Wilson and Thomas C. Poulter	295
The fluorescence of cod liver oil. C. A. Morehouse.....	297
Magnetic properties of thin cobalt films, electrolytically deposited. E. P. Tyndall and W. W. Wertzbaugher.....	297
Physical properties of some vegetables. Earl C. McCracken.....	297
A method of determining the thermal conductivity of wall board and other heat insulating products made from corn-stalks. Herbert Stiles and Harold Stiles.....	298
Electrical properties of corn-stalk products. A. A. Aardal.....	299
The conductivity of cod liver oil. L. W. Butler.....	299
The diffusion of the active particles in the Russell effect. Jay W. Woodrow	300
Peltier effect in single crystals of bismuth. H. D. Fagan.....	300
Improved apparatus for growth of metal crystals. A. G. Hoyem.....	301
Thompson effect in single crystal zinc. L. A. Ware.....	301
A spectrophotometric study of the color of meats. A. A. Benedict.....	301
Ballistic amplifier. J. M. B. Kellogg.....	302
A parallel carbon arc for direct current. L. B. Spinney.....	302
A simple refrigeration system for the farm. L. V. Crum.....	303
X-ray diffraction by organic solutions. Alfred W. Meyer.....	303
The effect of pressures up to 16,000 atmospheres upon the e.m.f. of the Weston standard cell. Thomas C. Poulter, Carter Richey, Robert Wilson, and John Fulton.....	304
Resistance change in a magnetic field of single crystals of bismuth. Roy A. Nelson and G. R. Watson.....	304
Molecular structure of benzene, cyclohexane, and their derivatives— a study in x-ray diffraction. G. W. Stewart.....	305
Diffraction of x-rays in liquids: effect of temperature. E. W. Skinner	306
A molecular velocity filter. John A. Eldridge.....	307
An investigation of the critical potentials of the spark spectrum of cadmium. DeVer Colson.....	307
Intensity of mercury lines excited by positive ions. C. Frische.....	307
The application of the interferometer to the measurements of com- pressibilities and indices of refraction of solid and liquid systems under high pressure. Thomas C. Poulter.....
Mathematics involved in first year college physics. C. J. Lapp.....

PAPERS PRESENTED

19

Psychology

Mentality, achievement, and class survival. Willis J. Bell.....	309
Development of imagination. Elizabeth G. Andrews.....	313
The evaluation of the musical capacity of nursery school children. Thomas F. Vance and Medora Grandprey.....	321
The relationship between biblical information and conduct. P. R. High- tower	329
Some factors involved in motivation. Nira M. Klise.....	335
A study of antagonistic habits. Martin F. Fritz.....	343
The uses and abuses of the questionnaire method. Christian A. Ruck- mick.....	343
The project method in laboratory psychology. R. H. Sylvester.....	344
Speech sounds of preschool children. Beth L. Wellman.....	344
An experiment in mental rehabilitation. W. S. Newell.....	345
Technique for recording time intervals upon paper ribbon. J. D. Alex- ander	346
A synthetic tone-mixer. Joseph Tiffin.....	346
A comparison in academic achievement of the students in the upper quartile with those in the lower quartile as measured by aptitude tests. J. E. Evans.....	347

Zoology

Snake notes. J. E. Guthrie.....	349
Segmentation in earth worms resulting from inability to regenerate a portion of the ventral nerve chain. F. L. Fitzpatrick and S. L. Stolba	361
Relative ability of anterior and posterior ends of the body to regener- ate in earth worms. F. L. Fitzpatrick.....	365
Some notes on collecting Cerambycidae. Robert E. Ware.....	367
The distribution of Brood B of white grubs in Iowa in 1928. H. E. Jaques	371
Trapping and banding birds at Iowa City during 1927. Dayton Stoner..	373
Abnormalities found in a two-headed calf. Horace Essex and Marshal Huston	377
Cliff swallow colonies in Iowa. W. F. Kubichek.....	381
European starling in Iowa. W. F. Kubichek.....	381
On the inheritance of resistance to fowl typhoid in chickens. W. V. Lambert and C. W. Knox.....	382
The sex ratio in guinea pigs. R. G. Schott.....	383
The inheritance of leg-feathering in the chicken. W. V. Lambert and C. W. Knox.....	383
The Myriopoda of Iowa. Betty Rogers.....	384
Some hereditary and environmental factors affecting egg laying capa- city of white leghorn pullets. A. E. Brandt and C. W. Knox.....
